Dear CAI Family,

Registration for the 5773/2012-2013 Religious School is now open! Here is a reminder of our hours:

- Kindergarten and first grade will attend Sunday from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m.
- Second through sixth grades will attend Sunday from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 p.m. and Tuesday from 4:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m.
- Seventh and eighth grade students participate in an exciting and engaging opportunity combining an hour of formal education on Tuesday from 5:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., followed by dinner and an informal educational component as part of Junior USY.
- In addition to reconfirming a commitment to religious school attendance, families are asked to attend Shabbat services (Shabbat Family Experience, Tot Shabbat, Minyan Shelanu, chapel or sanctuary) twice a month.
- To order a copy your child's Hebrew book for use at home (K-6th Grade only), please see the enclosed registration form.
- If you need financial assistance, please indicate that on the enrollment form.

All of these forms are necessary for us to create a safe and secure learning environment; therefore, registration will not be considered complete until all forms are completed and turned in. There will also be a non-refundable registration/snack fee independent of tuition. The fee will be $18.00 per family with registration by May 15; $36.00 per family with registration by June 15; and $72.00 per family thereafter. In addition, a $100 per child deposit is required when you turn in your forms. This deposit will be applied to your tuition and the balance will then be billed to your account.

The coming school year promises to be filled with laughter and learning. Our goal is to increase your child's love of Judaism. Thank you for allowing us to spend such valuable time with your children.

B'Shalom,

Rabbi Ben Herman
Director of Congregational Learning
