Trees are regarded as special gifts from God and are symbols of goodness and nobility. We observe Tu B'Shevat by eating fruits grown on trees from the Land of Israel.

Please join us for a Tu B'Shevat Seder at which we'll enjoy assorted fruits (fresh & dried), "nuts" & juices.

Dinner will include: Tuna, salad, chips, challah rolls & ice cream for dessert.

There is NO CHARGE to attend; however, reservations are needed by Jan. 20. Please: If you make reservations, plan to attend so that we can plan accordingly and not waste food. Thank you.

RSVP by Jan. 20
