

Congregation Anshei Israel has commissioned the creation of a new Torah as part of a year-long celebration of its 83rd anniversary. One of the spiritual duties of Judaism is that each Jew, in his or her lifetime, write a Torah in order to preserve the heritage of our ancestors. Since this is probably impractical for most individuals, the Talmud allows us to fulfill the mitzvah by sharing with others in the creation of a new Torah. Our MITZVAH 613 Torah Project is an opportunity to participate in a great mitzvah!

Please see below for a list of Dedication Opportunities so that you and your family can be a part of this exciting, once-in-a-lifetime event. The dedications listed provide a variety of opportunities to honor or memorialize in perpetuity Jewish life-cycle events such as a birth, Bar or Bat Mitzvah, special birthday, wedding and anniversary, special achievement/honor, or the loss of a loved one. Should you need guidance for you or your family to help select an appropriate and meaningful dedication, please call Michelle at 745-5550, ext. 225.

All dedications will be published in a MITZVAH 613 Commemorative Book that will become a part of our congregation's history.

Other celebratory events will be held throughout the year, with a Torah Project Siyum to be held on Sunday, December 8, 2013, to showcase the completion of the new Torah.
