

Congregation Anshei Israel presents

“TALMUD ON TUESDAY”

Tuesdays, 6:00 – 7:00pm

in Cantor Falkow Lounge

immediately following 5:30pm Minyan

The Talmud is an extensive compilation of teachings and opinions of thousands of rabbis over the centuries, covering matters of Jewish law, ethics, philosophy, history, customs, and more.

Learn about the law and lore in the “sea” of Talmud as Rabbi Robert Eisen invites us to dig deep into the “who, what, where, when, why and how” of living Judaism.

We'll begin with Tractate Ta'anit which deals with the procedure for the communal fasts that courts would institute in the event of drought in the Land of Israel, as well as the laws for the annual public fast days, commemorating the destruction of Jerusalem.

Filled with concerns voiced in the idiom of law and lore (HALAKHAH and AGGADAH), this tractate is a wonderful entry into “The Sea of Talmud.”

We will look forward to seeing and learning with you every Tuesday!

No reservations needed.
No charge to attend!
