

Congregation Anshei Israel
invites you to

Tu B'Shevat in the Park
Sunday, Feb. 8, 2015
9:30am

McDonald Park
(Catalina Hwy/Harrison)

Trees are regarded as special gifts from God and are symbols of goodness and nobility. We observe Tu B'Shevat by eating fruits grown on trees from the Land of Israel.

Please join us for this family program open to all in which attendees will participate in:

- A seder
- NEW activities: A nature exploration "trek" AND a scavenger hunt (What Doesn't Belong?) with two Sabino Canyon volunteer naturalists
- A build-a-bird-feeder project to take home!
- Snacks

NOTE: All Religious School families are to attend as there will not be class at the synagogue.

It's sure to be fun and it's all free!
