

ZIL G'MOR ~ Go and Study?

COME AND LEARN!

For over a year, our "Talmud on Tuesday" group has been learning Tractate Ta'anit from the Babylonina Talmud. On Tuesday, April 26 we concluded our study of the tractate. And, so, as per our tradition, as soon as one thing is concluded, we begin something new: we begin again.

Join us beginning Tuesday, May 3, 6:00 – 7:00 pm in the Epstein Chapel as we begin our study of Tractate Megillah. The only pre-requisite is a desire to learn!

 Megillah is the tenth Tractate of Mishnah in the Order Moed. It and its Gemara deal with the laws of Purim and offers exegetical understandings to the Book of Esther. It also includes laws concerning the public reading of the Torah and other communal synagogue practices. There is also a segment in the first chapter which details certain miscellaneous laws.*
