P'ri Yadehah

P'ri Yadehah — “the fruit of her hands,” — is a phrase from Eishet Chayil in the Book of Proverbs (31:31).

To commemorate the 100th year of Women's League for Conservative Judaism and the 75th year of the Torah fund Campaign, we celebrate women's achievements through creativity — the fruit of her hands — in the family, workplace, home, synagogue, and community. Women dedicate their lives as volunteers, as leaders in the Jewish and secular worlds, as scholars, scientists, artists, business leaders, and more.

The wheat branch featured in the 2017 pin/pendant signifies the sustenance we wish for all our family and friends, and the olive branch represents our prayers for peace.
