Weekday Torah Study Group

Led by Rabbi Robert Eisen, this informal study group leads to lively discussion. Held Wednesdays in the Library, 11:00am to noon. Everyone is welcome!

Tot Shabbat Service and Dinner

For families with young children, Rabbi Eisen holds a special Tot Shabbat Service the first Friday of the month at 5:45pm on the Bimah in the sanctuary with stories and songs (January 4 and February 1). On February 1, we'll also share a kid-friendly Shabbat dinner at 6:15pm. Dinner is $20 per family (two adults and up to four children). Reservations are required for dinner only. Call Kim at 745-5550, ext. 224.

Shabbat Afternoon Torah Study

Torah discussions are held every Saturday, one hour prior to the Mincha Service. This is a great opportunity to become more involved in "Living Judaism" and your congregation. Times of study are listed on the calendar in each issue of Kolenu. If you would like to lead a Torah discussion or for more information, call Michelle at 745-5550, ext. 225.

Shir Hadash: A New Song

On third Fridays each month (January 18 and February 15), we hold a very special Shabbat Service/Experience at 5:45pm in the Epstein Chapel. Led by Emily Ellentuck as Cantorial Soloist, we embrace Shabbat with a "Shir Hadash: A New Song," our spirited, upbeat and inclusive service with participatory singing, clapping, kid-friendly melodies and niggunim (wordless chants). Join us to add a little life to Shabbat and a little Shabbat to your life!

K'Ton (Small) Time

This service allows young families to share songs, prayers, stories, games and playground time; then partake of a kid-friendly Kiddush. Geared to families with kids ages 1 to 6, but everyone is welcome! Please join us third Saturdays (January 19 and February 16), 10:30 - 11:30am in the Epstein Chapel.

Shabbat Shira: Sabbath of Song

Please join us on Saturday, January 26 for a special musical Shabbat featuring the CAI Choirs directed by cantorial soloist Nichole Chorny. This Sabbath of Song will have new melodies to familiar prayers, and will explore some of the varied repertoire of our heritage.

Because we love our children ... Because families should be together on SHABBAT ... We offer free SHABBAT morning babysitting! Saturdays, 9:45 - 11:45am

Should your child(ren) need a break, feel free to take them to Room 11 for some play time, stories and a snack. We want everyone to have a great SHABBAT experience!

My heartfelt appreciation to all those who enjoyed — and acknowledged their appreciation of — my participation in CAI's High Holy Days services. It was my honor to share in, and be a part of them.

— Ron Sandler

The semi-holiday, Chamishah Asar B'Shevat (15th day of Shevat) marks the first day of spring in Israel. It occurs six weeks after Hanukkah. The Mishnah refers to it as Rosh Hashanah L'Ilanot (New Year of the Trees). Since ancient times, the Jewish people have observed it by eating fruit grown in Israel. With the rise of the Zionist movement and the re-establishment of the land of Israel, Tu B'Shevat has gained new significance as Arbor Day, observed by the planting of trees in Israel.

Trees were regarded as special gifts from God. There are many symbolic allusions to trees in the Bible, especially the olive, which sends up new shoots to continue the life of the old tree that dies. Trees are represented as symbols of goodness and nobility. The upright person is compared to "a tree planted near a stream, that bears fruit in due season, with leaves that never fade" (Psalm 1:3). "The righteous will flourish like the palm tree; they will grow like a cedar in Lebanon" (Psalm 92: 13-14).

Not too long ago, it was customary among many of our people to plant a tree when a child was born — a cedar for a boy and a cypress for a girl. Branches from these trees were then used for the poles of the wedding canopy (chuppah) on the day of their marriage.

In our day, many people purchase trees in Israel through the Jewish National Fund (JNF). If interested in purchasing a tree or making a donation to the JNF for reclamation of the land of Israel, please contact the JNF at 800-542-TREE (8733).

This year Tu B'Shevat falls on January 26 (it begins sundown Jan. 25). SEE ENCLOSED FLYER TO ATTEND OUR "TU B'SHEVAT SEDER" ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 26.

ARBA PARSHIOT: Special Sabbaths

During the month or so before Passover, four Shabbatot are characterized by special Maftir readings, called the Arba Parshiot [four Torah portions], which relate thematically to Passover or Purim: Shabbat Shekalim, Shabbat Zakhor, Shabbat Parah, and Shabbat Hahodesh.

SHABBAT SHEKALIM (February 9)

SHABBAT SHEKALIM — which takes place the SHABBAT prior to ROSH HODESH for the month of ADAR or on SHABBAT ROSH HODESH ADAR itself — is named for the MAFTIR reading, Exodus 30:11. The MAFTIR describes a census requiring every Israelite man to contribute a half-SHEKEL to support communal sacrifices in the portable Tent Of Meeting and later at the Temple. The egalitarian nature of this contribution is emphasized--"the rich shall not pay more, and the poor shall not pay less than half a SHEKEL." The requirement that all individuals contribute equally to the community helped develop a sense of unity crucial to the new nation created by the Exodus.

In the special Haftarah, 2 Kings 11:17-12:17, King Yehoash commanded that all money brought to the Temple be used for its repairs and renovations--both the required contributions and the free-will offerings. SHABBAT SHEKALIM occurs about a month before Passover as a reminder that the due date for the half-shekel contributions was approaching, on 1 NISAN, a month later. Some people contribute to an institution of Jewish learning in remembrance of the half-SHEKEL.

SHABBAT ZAKHOR (February 23)

The next of the ARBA PARASHIOT is SHABBAT ZAKHOR, whose MAFTIR reading, Deuteronomy 25:17-19, is an admonition to remember Amalek, the nation that surprised the Israelites wandering in the desert after the Exodus from Egypt with a rear attack on the stragglers. The Israelites constituted no military threat, leading some Jewish commentators to view Amalekites as rebels against God, because they were trying to destroy the Israelites. God commands the Israelites, therefore, that when safely settled in Palestine, "You shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven."

The Torah instructs Jews to "remember Amalek," a commandment fulfilled each year by publicly reading this passage on the SHABBAT before Purim, because Haman, the arch-villain of the Scroll of Esther [MEGILLAT ESTHER], who tries to kill the Jews of Persia, is a an Amalekite. The HAFTARAH reading is I Samuel 15:2-34, which describes Saul's war with Amalek.

Adar I and Adar II

The Hebrew/Jewish calendar is a luni-solar calendar based on the phases of the moon, but adjusted for the cycle of the earth's revolution around the sun. Because the solar year is about 11 days longer than 12 lunar months — though the Bible does not directly mention the addition of "an extra month here or there," without the insertion of an extra month now and then — Jewish festivals would gradually shift outside of the seasons required by the Torah.

And so, according to our tradition the Jewish calendar is based on a cycle of 19 years, of which 12 are common years (12 months) and seven leap years (13 months). The leap years are years 3, 6, 8, 11, 14, 17, and 19.

During a leap year ADAR I (or ADAR ALEPH — "first ADAR") is added before the regular ADAR. ADAR I is actually considered to be the extra month, and has 30 days. ADAR II (or ADAR BET — "second ADAR") is the "real" ADAR, and has the usual 29 days. For this reason, holidays such as PURIM, and according to many authorities, Yahrtzeits that fall in a regular ADAR are observed in ADAR II, not ADAR I.

Why are we telling you all of this? Because this year, 5773, is a regular year. All yahrzeits are observed during the one month of ADAR.

The Fast of Esther

The Fast of Esther is traditionally held on the 13th of Adar. However, because the 13th falls on Shabbat this year, we will observe the Fast on Thursday, the 11th of Adar, February 21, so there is no conflict with our preparation for, or observance of, Shabbat.

The Fast of Esther is observed in commemoration of the Fast observed by Mordecai and Esther and all Israel. On that very day, the enemies of the Jews had planned to subjugate and destroy them. The opposite, however, occurred and the Jews ruled over their enemies.

The acceptance of this Fast on the part of Israel for later generations is alluded to in the Scroll of Esther: 'And as they accepted upon themselves and upon their children, the matters of their fastings and their cry' (Esther 9).

The Fast is called by the name of Esther because it was she who first requested the observance of a fast, of Mordecai: 'Go and gather all the Jews who are found in Shushan and fast over me, and do not eat and do not drink three days, night and day; and I and my maidens will also fast thus.' (Ibid. 4)

As a "Minor Fast" it is observed from sunrise to sundown.

What is Purim?

More than 23 centuries ago, when the Persian Empire dominated the civilized world, an evil chamberlain, Haman, devised a diabolic plot to annihilate the Jewish people. But on the 13th day of the month of Adar, our people were delivered from the wicked Haman's decree. Each year on Purim, we celebrate our victory amid feasting and merriment. Purim is not only our most joyous festival, it is also a day of great significance — a day whose lessons remain relevant for all times.

At first reading, the Megillah (Scroll of Esther) which recounts the miracle of Purim, seems more like an epic tale of espionage and suspense than Sacred Scripture. In fact, throughout this carefully woven story of evil ambition and palace intrigue, we do not find the name of God mentioned, even once! Yet, within the intricate details of the Megillah, we can detect the unmistakable hand of Divine Providence. The closer we look into the events of man, the more we discover that every "coincidence," every seemingly insignificant event, is precisely arranged by the hand of the Almighty.

When Haman denounced the Jewish people to King Ahashuerus, he argued that "there is one people, dispersed, and divided among the nations . . . and their laws are different from those of any other people." What Haman did not realize, however, was that his very "accusation" held the key to our redemption and ultimate victory over his evil plan. We are "the people" and by strengthening our unity and adhering to the Torah and mitzvot, we survive and flourish. Enemies may arise in every generation to attack and destroy us, but when we affirm our unique heritage and hold fast to our essential character as Jews, we will always prevail.

Mordecai, the Jewish leader of his time, succeeded in uniting his people to defeat Haman. The Megillah tells us that he "did not bend his knee, nor bow down." He refused to compromise the eternal values of the Torah, even at the risk of his life. The lesson to us is clear: Only through closer adherence to our sacred heritage can we ensure our own survival. Purim is celebrated on the 14th day of Adar, or in the case of a leap year, the 14th day of Adar II. This year, Purim falls on the evening of February 23 - 24.

Purim Observances

Taanit Esther - Fast of Esther

On the day before Purim (Adar 13), we fast to commemorate Esther's fasting before she went to plead with the king for her people.

K'riat Hamegillah - Reading of the Scroll of Esther (Adar 14, both evening and morning) Women have a sacred obligation to attend.

Shalach Manot - Sending of Choice Portions At least two portions to friends. This expresses our national solidarity in the face of persecution.

Matanot La'Evyonim - Gifts to the Poor

Gifts of money and food to at least two poor persons. "The memory of past suffering should sensitize us to the needs of others, particularly the poor." — Rabbi Irving Greenberg (Contributions may be made to any Synagogue fund.)

Seudat Purim - Purim Festive Meal

A joyous celebration of thanksgiving for the deliverance wrought for our people.

Machatzit Hashekel - On Purim night, those over the age of 20 give three half-dollars to commemorate the half-shekel given in ancient times to the Temple.

Member Survey

Congregation Anshei Israel's Synagogue Life Council (SLC) has designed a brief survey in support of our mission to review, develop and implement programs and initiatives meeting the ritual, social and educational needs of the congregation.

This survey, intended for all adult CAI members, will require approximately 10 minutes of your time, and provides feedback opportunities regarding several aspects of congregational life. The survey will be conducted online; a link to the survey will be sent via e-mail on January 7, so watch your inbox! Congregants who prefer to fill out a hard copy of the survey will have the option of picking up a copy in the Administrative Office, beginning January 7.

Todah Rabah — thanks in advance for your participation! Your feedback and interest in CAI strengthens our congregation and helps the SLC to better serve you!

Social Action

The Community Food Bank is a volunteer-driven organization dedicated to relieving hunger in our community. On November 13, 2012, Hedy Feuer, Margo Gray, Peggy Langert, Richard Langert, Jane Poliakoff, Andrea Shatken, Stuart Shatken and Lee Surwit gathered there to sort canned and dry goods. We were such an efficient and jolly group, that we soon finished the first task given to us and were given 3000 lbs. of potatoes to package! A special "Todah Rabah" to all who participated.

CAI is continuing to particpate in Project Hospitality to feed and house the homeless during the winter months. We only have one more night (Monday, Jan. 7), so please contact us if you can help.

We also need donations of new men's socks, undershirts (size L or XL), disposable razors and deodorant. Please bring items to the marked box in the administrative office lobby.

Thank you all for your generous support of our Social Action Projects.

Memorial Plaques have been installed for Harvey Evenchik Landon Rosen

~ Anshei Israel Memorial Hall ~

Installation of a memorial plaque is a beautiful way to perpetuate the memory of a loved one. Each year on the anniversary of your loved one's death, the synagogue will send you a reminder of the Yahrzeit and light the light adjacent to their memorial plaque. Call 745-5550 to make arrangements or if you wish to reserve a space for the future.

Hesed Committee

CAI's Hesed Committee is here for you, our congregants. Do you know someone who is a shut-in, in rehab or would just like a friendly visit or call from a member of the committee? Do you or someone you know need a ride to shul? We are also able to assist with the meal of condolence or post-bereavement calls. Call on us ...we are here to help.

Evelyn Sigafus, Chair 885-4102, esigafus@aol.com

Grief and Bereavement Support Group

In the same way as the loss of our loved ones is something we all share in common, so do we also share many of the same concerns with regard to our grief and bereavement. And, for many of us, the mourning process is something that is awfully overwhelming. In order to help those who would find comfort and guidance through the opportunity to share their "journey" with others, Congregation Anshei Israel is forming this support group. The group would meet once a week for 8 weeks. We need a minimum of 4 people.

Please call Norma Karp at 299-3382.

Donations made to Anshei Israel Funds enable our Synagogue to continue to carry out its work, thereby better serving our members. Please consider making a donation in honor of a relative or friend who may be celebrating a simcha or in memory of a loved one. This list reflects those donations made after the last issue's publication date. Todah Rabah to all.

Our Donation Form is available at the Front Desk in the administrative office AND at www.caiaz.org PLEASE NOTE: Notification cards are sent for donations of $12 or more.
