Tot Shabbat Service and Dinner

For families with young children, Rabbi Robert Eisen holds a special Tot Shabbat Service with stories and songs the first Friday of the month at 5:45pm (May 2 and June 6) on the Bimah in the sanctuary. A kid-friendly Shabbat dinner follows at 6:15pm. Dinner is $25 per family (two adults and up to four children). Reservations are required for dinner only to Kim at 745-5550, ext. 224.

Shabbat Babysitting

Because we love our children and families should be together on SHABBAT... we offer free babysitting on Saturdays 9:45 - 11:45am. Should your child(ren) need a break, take them to Room 11 for some play time, stories and a snack.

Shabbat Afternoon Torah Study

Torah discussions are held every Saturday, one hour prior to the Mincha Service. This is a great opportunity to become more involved in "Living Judaism" and your congregation. Times of study are listed on the calendar in each issue of Kolenu. If you would like to lead a Torah discussion or for more information, call Michelle at 745-5550, ext. 225.

Weekday Torah Study Group

Led by Rabbi Robert Eisen, this informal study group can lead to lively discussion. Held Wednesdays in the Library, 11:00am to 12noon. Everyone is welcome!

Join us on Wednesday, May 14 at 11:00am for Israel Solidarity Torah Study: "The Religious Foundation of Modern Zionism," as we show our solidarity with The Land, with our people, in honor and celebration of "Tucson Celebrates Israel 66."

Israel Solidarity Shabbat

Join us on Saturday, May 10 at 9:00am as we show our solidarity with The Land, with our people, in honor and celebration of "Tucson Celebrates Israel 66." Israel Is Real ... And So Is Our Relationship with Her. KOL OD BALEIVAV ... as long as our hearts beat strong with the passion of "The Hope," so will our dream be forever renewed ...

K'Ton Time

This service is held the third Saturday each month (May 17 and June 21) at 10:30am in the Epstein Chapel to allow young families to share songs, prayers, stories, games and playground time; then partake of a kid-friendly Kiddush. Geared to families with kids ages 1 to 6, but everyone is welcome!

Summer Shul

For several weeks each summer, we move our 9:00am Saturday service from the sanctuary to enable us to set a different mood. We will set up Cantor Falkow Lounge as a Sanctuary: the chairs will be placed in the pattern of a horseshoe (concentric semi-circles) around a Reader's Stand and the Aron Kodesh is placed against the Eastern Wall. This enables us to see and hear each other during the course of the service ... and to find our worship strengthened by our sense of togetherness. Please plan to join us June 14 through August 9 ... beat the heat and stay cool in shul!

Comfort and Quiet for Babies and Moms

We have a designated room for moms who wish to nurse their babies in a quiet and more private space. The bride's changing room (at the back of the Epstein Chapel) will comfortably accommodate one or two moms at a time. Feel free to share this information with anyone who may want to use the "nursing" room.

INTERFAITH FAMILIES WARMLY WELCOMED

LIKE TO VOLUNTEER?

SHAVUOT: THE FORGOTTEN HOLIDAY

The Shavuot Festival, otherwise known as Pentecost (50th day) or Feast of Weeks, was celebrated primarily as a thanksgiving for the wheat harvest; it falls seven weeks after the barley harvest, when an Omer of the new produce was offered. The Torah refers to Shavuot as Hag Ha-Katsir (The Feast of the Harvest) and Yom Ha-Bikkurim (The Day of First Fruits), observed by offerings of the best ripe produce of the fields (Exodus 23:16; Numbers 28:26).

In the course of time, and as a result of the transformation of the agricultural festivals into historical commemorations, the additional significance of Shavuot as the festival of the Giving of the Torah (Z'man Matan Torateynu) at Mount Sinai completely overshadowed its original significance. Though the Bible does not identify Shavuot with the anniversary of the giving of the Ten Commandments, the tradition, undisputed in the Talmud, has been that the Torah was given on the sixth day of Sivan.

Shavuot is called Atzeret in the Mishnah and the Talmud, in the sense that it serves as a concluding festival to Pesah. In the observances of Shavuot, the historical as well as the agricultural aspects are reflected. The Decalogue is read in the synagogue on the first day. The first night of the festival is often spent in reading an anthology of sacred writings called Tikkun Leil Shavuot. The Book of Ruth is read for its description of a summer harvest in Israel. Milk dishes are the customary foods, symbolizing the Torah which is likened to milk, according to the allegorical interpretation of the Song of Songs, "honey and milk are under your tongue."

— Adapted from A Book of Jewish Concepts by Phillip Birnbaum

This year Shavuot begins at sundown on June 3 and continues through sundown on June 5.

THE MITZVAH OF BIKUR HOLIM

Federal health-care privacy regulations make it difficult for us to know when a member of CAI has been admitted to a hospital. Become a partner in the mitzvah of Bikur Holim — visiting the sick — by advising our clergy when you, a relative, or a friend is hospitalized. We can stay informed ONLY if a family member or friend provides the information to us. PLEASE CALL 745-5550 to speak with: Rabbi Robert Eisen, ext. 230 or our Clergy Assistant, ext. 225

Daily Minyan Services & "Jewry" Duty

Our Minyan is expected to be there when someone needs to say Kaddish. We hope you will consider being there for others, as there are occasions when it is difficult to get a Minyan. Along with your "Jewry Duty," we ask that you consider committing to being part of the Minyan at least one morning or afternoon per month on a regular basis. Service times are on the calendar in each newsletter and on the synagogue's web site, www.caiaz.org. Shown below is a combined list of Minyan attendees and those fulfilling their "Jewry" Duty during February and March 2014. Todah rabah!

Innovative Partnerships

As evidence of spring begins to show more clearly and buds turn to blooms, there are two “buds” in particular whose friendship is blooming stronger than ever — the United States and Israel. Following Prime Minister Netanyahu’s March visit with President Obama in Washington, he traveled to California to enhance Israel’s partnerships with Silicon Valley.

The Israeli leader met with Governor Jerry Brown, and together the two signed a new Memorandum of Understanding that calls for increased partnerships in high-tech, the environment and cyber-security. During his trip to the West Coast, Netanyahu called Israel and California “the most powerful innovation hubs on the planet.”

In recent years, Israeli and California entrepreneurs have developed close ties in the public sector and through private companies, partnering on an array of groundbreaking technological innovations. The new agreement reached this spring will provide Israeli companies with access to California’s universities and federal laboratories that partner venture capitalists with high-tech researchers.

In addition to expanding the existing partnerships within the high-tech and cyber-security sectors, Netanyahu and officials in California have focused their attention on the need to implement Israeli expertise in irrigation technology. According to algorithms developed by the federal U.S. Drought Monitor, a majority of California currently experiences the worst possible drought conditions in the modern history of the state, leading California officials to declare a state of emergency.

“We in Israel don’t have a water problem,” said Netanyahu in an interview with Bloomberg television. He continued, “We use technology to solve it, in recycling, in desalination, in deep drip irrigation and so on. And these technologies could be used by the state of California to eliminate its chronic drought problem.” Governor Brown agreed. “Israel has demonstrated how efficient a country can be, and there is a great opportunity for collaboration,” he said.

Actually, the Jewish state has already begun implementing these technologies in California. Israel’s IDE Technologies Ltd. is working in cooperation with a California company, Poseidon Resources Corp., to develop a seawater desalination plant north of San Diego. Once finished in 2016, the Carlsbad facility will be the largest of its kind in the Western Hemisphere, and will be able to provide 50 million gallons of potable water a day.

Israel’s growing partnerships with California, and continued relationship with the United States showcase the many ways in which the United States and its strongest ally in the Middle East are deepening their alliance through public and private sector collaboration.

A fundraiser to benefit
CAI’s Religious School.

As chair of the recent Shaloh Manot Purim bag fundraiser, I want to personally thank my kitchen crew who came in to bake the hamantaschen, those who helped put the bags together, and to the staff who helped in every phase of this project. Without you, the project would never have happened. Special thanks to Gary Windham for being my “tech support” and figuring out how to navigate and solve our online problems.

Thank you to all who participated in this successful fundraiser and in the mitzvah of Shaloh Manot.

We look forward to next Purim when it will be even bigger and better!

Today Rabah,
Evelyn Sigafus

~ Anshei Israel Memorial Hall ~

Installation of a memorial plaque is a beautiful way to perpetuate the memory of a loved one. Each year on the anniversary of your loved one's death, the synagogue will send you a reminder of the Yahrzeit and light the light adjacent to their memorial plaque.
Call 745-5550 to make arrangements or if you wish to reserve a space for the future.

DEALING WITH GRIEF AND LOSS?

Are you having difficulty dealing with grief and loss?
Perhaps it would be helpful to talk with a trained counselor. A synagogue volunteer would be happy to speak with you confidentially.

Please call Norma Karp at 299-3382.

Dear Friends,

Betejoy and I want to thank you for your thoughtful contributions, cards, notes and calls following my recent accident. It is always comforting to know that people are thinking of you.

We hope that you and your family enjoy a restful and productive summer.

*Best regards,
Rabbi Arthur Oleisky*
