Interfaith Families Welcomed

CAI welcomes all who seek the spiritual comfort found within our sacred community. We warmly welcome interfaith families and encourage them to participate in as much synagogue life as they choose within the framework of Conservative Judaism. For more information, pick up a brochure at the Shalom Cart or access it at www.caiaz.org/resources as part of CAI's "Myths vs. Facts" program.

Know Someone New to Tucson?

If you know someone new to the Tucson community who you believe would be interested in finding out about CAI, please call Debra Lytle at 745-5550, ext. 242, so we can speak to them about all of the many religious, spiritual, educational and communal opportunities the synagogue has to offer!

Kiddie Corner

One of the most important values we can share is the importance of Shabbat worship, together as families. Should your little one(s) get restless, we offer a spot in Rabbi Breger Hall for them so parents can listen, see and participate in the service, as their children play with Shabbat-friendly toys and books.

Comfort for Babies & Moms

We have a designated room for moms who wish to nurse their babies in a quiet private space. The bride's changing room (at the back of the Epstein Chapel) will comfortably accommodate one or two moms at a time.

Tot Shabbat Service and Dinner

For families with young children, Rabbi Robert Eisen holds a special Tot Shabbat Service with stories and songs the first Friday of most months at 5:45pm on the Bimah in the sanctuary. A kid-friendly Shabbat dinner follows at 6:15pm. Dinner is $25 per family (two adults and up to four children); additional adults $10 per person. An RSVP is needed for dinner only to Kim at 745-5550, ext. 224. Please plan to join us on September 1 and October 6.

YOUR MEMBERSHIP MATTERS

Thank you for renewing your membership with Congregation Anshei Israel.

Knowing that you're here for us enables us to be here for you!

Shabbat Afternoon Torah Study

Torah discussions are held every Saturday, one hour prior to the Mincha Service and are a great opportunity to become more involved in "Living Judaism" and your congregation. Times of study are listed on the calendar in each issue of Kolenu. If you would like to lead a Torah discussion or for more information, call Tamara at 745-5550, ext. 225.

Talmud on Tuesday

Learn about the law and lore in the "sea" of Talmud with Rabbi Robert Eisen as we dig deep into the "who, what, where, when, why and how" of living Judaism. Join us in the Epstein Chapel immediately following 5:30pm Minyan. (Not held Sept. 26, Oct. 3 & 10).

Weekday Torah Study Group

Led by Rabbi Robert Eisen, this informal study group can lead to lively discussion. Held Wednesdays in the Library, 11:00am to 12noon. (Not held Sept. 20 & 27, Oct. 4 & 11).

K'Ton Time

Join us on Saturday, September 9, 10:30-11:00am in the Epstein Chapel for this fun and lively 20-minute service led by Gabby Erbst and Marcy Friedman that includes songs, prayers, stories and games; playground time for kids and schmoozing time for parents; and a kid-friendly kiddush. Geared to families with kids ages 1 to 6, but every family is welcome!

Shalom!

Shabbat Under the Stars Service/ Family Shabbat Dinner

Our Family Shabbat service on Friday, September 15 at 5:45pm will be held on the Rabbi Arthur Oleisky Courtyard patio (in lieu of the Epstein Chapel). The opportunity to worship outside enables us to better encounter nature, and to remind ourselves that any space can become sacred through the manner in which we use it. With our families... as a family... we will welcome Shabbat with rhythm, with movement, with ruach and with song, followed by Shabbat dinner and Open Lounge in the Linda Roy Youth Center with games and fun. Dinner $25 per family (two adults & up to 4 children) for CAI members; guest family $30; adults (13+) $10 per person. RSVP needed by Sept. 11. Call Kim at 745-5550, ext. 224 or visit caiaz.org

TZOM GEDALIAH Fast of Gedaliah

TZOM GEDALIAH (Fast of Gedaliah) is an annual fast day instituted by our tradition to mark the assassination of Gedaliah Ben Achikam, the Governor of Israel during the days of Nebuchadnezzar, the King of Babylonia.

In the time immediately after the destruction of the Temple and of Jerusalem itself by the armies of Nebuchadnezzar, most of the Jewish people who lived in the land of Judah were exiled. There were a few that remained. Nebuchadnezzar appointed a man named Gedaliah as governor.

Gedaliah advised the people not to accept the Babylonian rule and instead to work towards reestablishing normal life in the country. Unfortunately, there were people who disagreed with him. A man named Yishmael ben Netaniah, a descendant of the royal family, murdered Gedaliah and many other Jews. This murder was the final blow that completely destroyed the last remnant of organized Jewish community in the land of Israel until the Jews returned to build the Second Temple.

The story of Gedaliah is told to us in two places: in the TaNaCh in Kings II chapter 25 and in the book of Jeremiah, chapters 40 and 41.

The "Fast" itself is considered a "Minor Fast" as it begins at daylight and not on the evening before. This year TZOM GEDALIAH falls on Sunday, September 24.

Blessing of Our Pets

Our lives would not be the same without our pets! They are such a part of our lives: a presence in our homes and in our hearts; companions in times of joy and comfort in times of pain.

Please join us on Sunday, October 15 at 11:35am – after reading the Torah portion describing how God created the world (filled it with life!) and then the story of Noah (how, when the world was restored, that life was renewed as well – two by two!) – we will pause to recognize just how important our pets are to us. Meet us (pets included, of course!) on the basketball court near the sukkah for a short "service" to include a blessing of our pets. We encourage everyone to come for this very special moment. PLEASE: Safely transport and control your pet(s). All dogs must be on leashes. For the safety of all, no aggressive animals.

Family Shabbat Experience Service & Dinner

Please join us on Friday, October 20, at 5:45pm as we transition into the "Rhythm of Shabbat." With our families... as a family... we welcome Shabbat with rhythm, with movement, with ruach (spirit) and with song. Then we'll share Shabbat dinner, followed by Open Lounge in the Youth Center with games and fun. Come celebrate Shabbat with your congregational family! Dinner $25 per family (two adults & up to 4 children) for CAI members; guest family $30; adults (13+) $10 per person. RSVP needed by Oct. 16. Call Kim at 745-5550, ext. 224 or visit caiaz.org

Shabbat Under the Stars

Come and help us expand our "worship zone" for an intimate Shabbat service on our beautiful Rabbi Arthur Oleisky Courtyard patio as we welcome Shabbat on Friday, October 27 at 5:45pm.

Social Action

American

Inspiration for our Blood Drive "Bar Mitzvah" Year

On July 30, ordinary Jews and friends transformed themselves into HEROES, donating 34 units of blood, enough to help heal over 100 patients. I am in awe of these 42 selfless donors and nine volunteers who contributed their time and their lifeblood to make our drive successful. Many have participated for years.

Two wonderful members of our shul inspired me to chair the blood drives. Years ago Bob Cohen, who had been a blood donor for over 10 years, brought the Red Cross to Congregation Anshei Israel. That was the first time I considered being a donor, and I continued to donate a few times a year. In 2004, I joined CAI's Social Action Committee, then chaired by Rosie Eilat-Kahn. She had been (and continues to be) a regular donor since the age of 18. She asked each of us to chair a project from her list, one of which was blood drives. As a somewhat experienced donor, that was my natural choice. At first I was a novice coordinator, collecting fewer than 10 units. Over the 13 years, our drive has increased both donors and units, until today the Red Cross staff has no break in the stream of heroes.

Thanks to all of you who participated. Special recognition goes to Abby Rosen for recruiting three new donors and to Ron Karp, whose donations have totaled 16 gallons. Also many thanks to our clergy, staff and maintenance people who have gone above and beyond their duties to assist in publicizing and hosting the drive.

By the way, Rosie was honored in May 2016 as CAI's "Mensch of the Year" for all the mitzvot she does and the mitzvah projects she recruits others to do.

Service times are on the calendar in each newsletter and on CAI's web site. Young Adult/College Outreach Program

During the High Holy Days, the absence of many of our young adults is readily apparent to the Synagogue and to you, the families whose children are away from home. All too often our college-age young adults feel cut off from the Synagogue which played such an important part in their younger years. We want to keep that Synagogue connection with your children.

Please help us update our list of young adults who are in college or others who would enjoy hearing from us. We ask those who would like their children to receive both regular and e-mail communications to complete and return the form below to: CAI Young Adult/College Outreach Program, 5550 E. 5th St., Tucson, AZ 85711

A special booklet of prayers is used that provides spiritual connection with those who are no longer among the living.

Lulav & Etrog

Blessing the lulav and etrog on Sukkot is the Jewish way of thanking God for the blessings of the earth. By holding the four species together (the branch of a palm (lulav), three myrtle branches (hadass), two willows (aravot), and a bright yellow etrog) we symbolically “get our act together.” When we point the lulav and etrog in six directions, we remind ourselves that God’s presence can be found in every area of our lives. By shaking the lulav and etrog vigorously, we commit to being “movers and shakers” in the world this year, for good and for blessing. Add meaning to your Jewish life and create special memories for your family by shaking a lulav in your home! We offer fully assembled Lulav & Etrog Sets for $54.

RSVP deadline: Sept. 14. Please use the inserted form.

Tashlich at the Park

Sunday, September 24 • 4:00pm at Reid Park, Ramada 1

We invite everyone to join us as we symbolically “cast away” our sins as the New Year begins. Traditionally, bread crumbs are cast upon a body of water as an act of self purification and to fulfill the words of the Prophet Micah (7:19): “And Thou wilt cast (vetashlich) all their sins into the depths of the sea.”

Enjoy an educational program for learners of all ages to reflect upon the themes of the season. CAI will provide refreshments. Bring the whole family and participate in this meaningful experience at Reid Park.

(NOTE NEW LOCATION: To find Ramada 1: Enter park via Country Club; turn in on Concert Place; turn into parking lot on right; if full, more parking to left; Ramada 1 is ahead on left beyond playground.)

THE FALL FESTIVALS AT CAI

SUKKOT is one of the three major pilgrimage festivals of the Jewish year. At the time of the Temple in Jerusalem, Jews would come from all over Israel to Jerusalem to celebrate the festival. Sukkot is known by a number of different names, each signifying a different aspect of the holiday.

THE FEAST OF BOOTHS

Sukkot reminds us of the 40 years of wandering in the wilderness after our freedom from Egypt. During those years, the Jews could not live in a permanent home so they lived in huts and booths. Remembering that wandering of our ancestors, the Torah commands us by saying, "Ye shall dwell in booths seven days — that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt."

Thus, the first aspect of the holiday relates to the Sukkah, so we are commanded to build and live in a hut or tabernacle. The first two days of Sukkot are each a Yom Tov, festival days, with many of the laws similar to those of the Sabbath. Next there are five intermediate days called Hol Hamoed, which, while still the holiday, are much like weekdays in that we can go to work and resume most usual activities. Then there begins a new holiday, which in the Diaspora is celebrated on two days. The first is called Shemini Atzeret, followed the next day by Simhat Torah. These two days are also each a Yom Tov, full holy days, in which we are not permitted to work.

THE FESTIVAL OF INGATHERING

Sukkot also has a strong agricultural component. Our ancestors completed the fall harvest and thanked God for the bounty they had received. Sukkot is really the first recorded celebration of Thanksgiving.

THE SEASON OF REJOICING

Because of the great joy with which the festival was celebrated, Sukkot is referred to as the most joyous of all festivals, and thus is called in the Prayer Book, "The Season of Our Rejoicing."

SUKKOT OBSERVANCES

The two main ritual observances of the festival are eating in the Sukkah and fulfilling the obligation of making the prayer with the Lulav and Etrog during each of the days of Sukkot, except for the Sabbath.

A Sukkah is a building consisting of a minimum of two walls and the beginning of a third, supporting a temporary roof holding the Sechah, which is anything that grew in the ground and is no longer attached.

LULAV AND ETROG

The other significant and unique ritual for Sukkot is the taking together of the four species. In one hand we hold the Lulav, which is a palm frond attached to willows and myrtle twigs. In the other hand we hold the Etrog, the citron. Holding all four together, each day we make the blessing, and at services we have a procession called Hoshanot at which time all of the people who have the set of four species parade in a circle around the sanctuary while chanting special prayers.

HOSHANAH RABBAH

The seventh day of Sukkot is known as Hoshanah Rabbah. During the morning service, the procession with the Etrog and Lulav is repeated seven times while the Hazzan chants the Hoshanot hymns asking for God's help. Towards the end of the service, branches of willows are beaten so that our sins, symbolically, fall just as the willow leaves drop off.

SHEMINI ATZERET

Shemini Atzeret, the eighth day of Sukkot, is in effect, a separate holiday. We are no longer obligated to remain in the Sukkah. During the service, we pray for rain in Israel to nourish the crops.

DANCE WITH ME ON SIMHAT TORAH

For generations, our people have closed our observance of the Fall Festivals (Sukkot and Shemini Atzeret) with the celebration of Simhat Torah (rejoicing with the Torah). It is on Simhat Torah that we complete the reading of the Torah and immediately return to the beginning of the Book of Genesis to start the cycle of reading again. During both the evening and the morning services, the Torah scrolls are removed from the Aron Kodesh and paraded around the Sanctuary in festive processions of song and dance. Everyone in attendance is encouraged to carry a scroll and share the joy of Torah. An effort is also made to ensure that everyone in attendance is called to the Torah for an Aliyah.

Here at CAI, Simhat Torah has always been a fun time for all. The children watch in awe as their parents teach them love of Torah, and the parents glow as their children extend that love into the next generation.

Men's Club will prepare and share breakfast with the Religious School students in the Synagogue's sukkah on Sunday, October 8 at 9:30am. After breakfast, we'll meet to discuss future Men's Club dates and activities, and share ideas and how to coordinate them. Want to help? Contact Mark Levine at 548-5471 or marsher18@gmail.com

We understand that one of your most important commodities is your time. The Men's Club is looking for volunteers to help organize only one function per year. We hope to have only 4 or 5 major functions for the upcoming year.

Applications for 2017-18 are on the Shalom Cart in Rabbi Breger Hall, at the front desk in the administration office, or you can visit <http://caiaz.org/getting-involved/affiliate-social-groups/mens-club/>

Celebrating Becoming Bar Mitzvah at CAI

Clayton David Sigafus Sept. 2

Clayton is the son of Michelle & Brent Sigafus; the grandson of Evelyn Sigafus & the late Martin Sigafus; Jeannette Wells & the late Don Wells; and brother to Macy. Clayton's Bar Mitzvah project involves service projects for Scout Ner Tamid award and the Gilo Twinning Project. A student at Miles Early Learning Center, Clayton's interests include Boy Scouts, video games, volleyball and piano.

Preschool/Kindergarten

Our Preschool/Kindergarten Open House is on Wednesday, September 6 at 7:00 pm. Parents with children currently enrolled in the school can meet with the Parent Action Committee and their child's teachers to go over the year's curriculum. This event is for adults only; please make arrangements for your child(ren).

Parent-Tot Class is back in session on Mondays, 9:00–11:00am (not held Sept. 4). New facilitator, Amanda Stark, will bring her 3-month-old daughter to the class. This FREE class for children up to 24-months in age and their parent(s) is a great way to meet other parents, exchange experiences, and provide an opportunity for the children to play together and engage in age-appropriate activities. We also read a book from PJ Library twice a month. Feel free to bring your friends; it's open to everyone! (PLEASE NOTE: We have a mandatory vaccination policy.)

Lisa Robinson will be taking school portraits Tuesday & Wednesday, September 12 & 13. Be sure to send your child to school wearing appropriate clothing (no black or white solids; vivid colors or pastels are great).

Rabbi Eisen will blow shofar for the children during music on Friday, September 15; and on Monday, October 2, he will explain Sukkot and why we use a lulav and etrog. The children each get to take a turn holding and shaking them, followed by a sweet treat.

Don't miss this year's Scholastic Book Fair October 16-20 in the school hallways. It's a Wild West theme, so "Saddle Up and Read"!

Installation of a memorial plaque is a beautiful way to perpetuate the memory of a loved one. Each year on the anniversary of your loved one's death, the synagogue will send you a reminder of the Yahrzeit and light the light adjacent to their memorial plaque. Call Debra at 745-5550, ext. 242 to make arrangements or if you wish to reserve a space for the future.
