Tu B'Av Paper Cutting Family Workshop Sunday July 25, 10:00am – 11:30am

Celebrate the Jewish holiday of love by making some beautiful paper cut artwork. The relaxing art of paper cutting* is easy for those with all levels of artistic ability.

Tu B'Av, the 15th day of the month of Av, is a modern semi-holiday with ancient roots. Although it is mentioned in the Mishnah as a day on which the women of ancient Israel went out to find husbands, Tu B'Av more or less disappeared from the Jewish calendar for close to two millennia, only to be rediscovered by mainly secular Israelis, seeking a Jewish equivalent to Valentine's Day.

*Paper cutting recommended for ages 10+

FROM THE PRESIDENT

While you are enjoying the summer either here in Tucson or off in cooler climes, we at Anshei Israel are working diligently to prepare for the High Holy Days. They're just around the corner – Erev Rosh Hashanah is September 6, which also happens to be Labor Day.

In anticipation of being able to gather and pray in person as this COVID-19 pandemic subsides, we have surveyed our members to help guide our planning, always with the health and safety for our congregants, clergy and staff in mind. You spoke, and we listened. We will continue to offer our hybrid services through the Festival season, so that you can choose the best way for you to participate.

We have made some improvements to both our audio and video systems in order to provide the best possible experience for both in-person and online participants. We look forward to seeing you in shul or online.

Remember that our new (as of July 1) meeting ID and password are for all our online services, including our daily minyanim, Kabbalat Shabbat and Shabbat morning services. Havdalah will still be celebrated on Facebook LIVE, and I urge you to help us make a minyan, in-person or online. We all count, regardless of how you choose to participate.

Finally, if you have not renewed your membership, please do so as soon as possible to ensure you can attend our High Holy Day services in-person or online.

It's an exciting time in the ongoing life of Congregation Anshei Israel, and we appreciate your support, participation and dedication to "Living (y)our Judaism Together."

B'Shalom,

Evelyn Sigafus, ESigafus@aol.com

Renew Your Membership for High Holy Day Tickets

Thank you for understanding as we worked and planned to provide our members with a myriad of ways to connect during the past year. We proved that a synagogue is more than a building. We are a spiritual, educational and social community, and most of this past year these programs and services took place in your actual home. Since April, following the guidance from the COVID-19 Response Task Force, the Board of Trustees approved starting in-person programming again and we have been successfully holding hybrid services and events to allow for in-person and at-home participation.

As we worked through enormous challenges, all of us, including CAI, must also continue to plan for the future. Our new fiscal year begins July 1, 2021. We are anticipating a great year as we get to know Rabbi Metz in-person now. Planning is underway to bring meaningful spiritual services, social activities and learning opportunities to our community in the coming year.

We thank all our wonderful members who enable everything we do, and want to remind you to return your membership renewal materials. Thank you again for your continued commitment to and support of Congregation Anshei Israel! Your generosity assures that no one is ever turned away from our congregation due to an inability to pay.

SHABBAT HAZON and SHABBAT NAHAMU

The Sabbaths surrounding the Ninth of Av carry a clear message relating to the holiday. The prophetic readings for the three weeks preceding the holiday — the first two from Jeremiah and the third from Isaiah — are full of admonitions in preparation for this mournful time. Following Tisha B'Av, there are seven prophetic readings of consolation — all from Isaiah — providing comfort after this somber occasion and preparing the individual emotionally and spiritually for the upcoming High Holy Days. The Sabbaths that immediately precede and follow Tisha B'Av each have a special name reflecting the message of the respective Haftarah (prophetic reading).

The Sabbath immediately preceding the Ninth of Av is known as the Sabbath of Vision (Hazon) for the prophetic reading Isaiah 1:1-27. After recounting heinous transgressions, it offers the hope of reconciliation, which will come when the people “cease to do evil, learn to do good.” The Sabbath of Vision and Shabbat Nahamu, which provides words of consolation a week later, embrace Tisha B'Av from opposite sides, cushioning the blow of the day of destruction, allowing the mourners to go into it knowing there is salvation and emerge from it reassured that redemption will come. The entire portion [of Shabbat Hazon] may be chanted to the melody of Eicha (Lamentations); more appropriately, only the verses of admonition are rendered in the subdued chant.

The upswing of hope begun on the afternoon of Tisha B'Av continues on the following Shabbat. Called Shabbat Nahamu (Console) after the first line of the day's prophetic reading (Nahamu, Nahamu Ami, “Console, console my people ...”) (Isaiah 40:1-26), it is also the first of seven Haftarot of consolation, all drawn from the book of Isaiah, that deliver a message of comfort in the seven weeks following Tisha B'Av and lead us to the period of Rosh Hashanah.

This year, Shabbat Hazon falls on July 16 & 17;

Shabbat Nahamu* falls on July 23 & 24.

ROSH HODESH ELUL

The month of Elul (which immediately precedes Rosh Hashanah) is the time to prepare for the High Holy Days. Because these days are filled with so much meaning and potency, they require a special measure of readiness. At this service, we will greet the new month of Elul with anticipation of the beginning of a New Year, seeing it as an opportunity to begin to build our resolve to make the upcoming year of 5782 what we want and need it to be.

As is our custom, we will sound the Shofar (as it is on every weekday of Elul) for the first time at the conclusion of the service.

Please plan to join us on Sunday, August 8 at 8:00am for this special moment, and bring your Shofar if you wish.

TISHA B'AV A Time to Mourn

The ninth day of Av, mentioned in Zechariah 8:19 as the “Fast of the Fifth” month, commemorates such national calamities as the destruction of both Temples, the fall of Bar Kokhba's fortress, Bethar, and the expulsion from Spain in 1492. According to tradition, both the First and Second Temples were destroyed on the ninth of Av, the day referred to as predestined to misfortune. Tisha B'Av resembles Yom Kippur in its restrictions upon eating and bathing, maintained from sunset to sunset.

The three weeks between the 17th of Tammuz and the ninth of Av are observed by abstaining from all festivities and joyous celebrations. But when the month of Av has begun, all enjoyment should be reduced. It has long been the custom in Israel to eat no meat (except on the Sabbath) from the first day of Av until after the fast.

On the ninth of Av, when the Book of Lamentations and other dirges (kinot) are recited, before congregations seated on low stools as a sign of mourning, the curtain (Parokhet) is removed from the Ark (Aron Ha-Kodesh), and visits are made to cemeteries, in order to stress the sense of mourning. The morning service is recited without tallit or tefillin; these are worn during the Mincha service. The elegies known as kinot are descriptive, not only of the calamities connected with the destruction of Jerusalem, but also of the Jewish catastrophes that occurred in various lands of persecution.

This year, the Ninth of Av observance/fast begins on the evening of July 17 and continues through July 18.

SELICHOT

Selichot, literally “forgivenesses”, are prayers for forgiveness. Selichot refers to two related types of penitential prayers. The first are prayers that are customarily recited daily at morning services during the month of Elul. This is also the name of the service that takes place late at night on the Saturday preceding Rosh Hashanah, and consists of a longer series of these penitential prayers.

Anshei Israel Memorial Hall

Installation of a memorial plaque is a beautiful way to perpetuate the memory of a loved one. Each year on the anniversary of your loved one's death, the synagogue will send you a reminder of the Yahrzeit and light the light adjacent to their memorial plaque. Call Debra at 745-5550, ext. 242, to make arrangements or if you wish to reserve a space for the future.

Dealing with Grief and Loss?

Are you having difficulty dealing with grief and loss? Perhaps it would be helpful to talk with a trained counselor. A synagogue volunteer would be happy to speak with you confidentially.

Please call Norma Karp at 299-3382.
