Shalom,

Yes! Passover is coming! This year, Passover falls April 2 through April 9 – the first Seder is the evening of April 1. Some of us have already begun making plans, while others are having nightmares over those boxes of dishes which have to be moved. All of us, however, can make our festival celebration especially meaningful by participating in two very important mitzvot associated with Passover.

MECHIRAT CHAMETZ: SELLING OF THE CHAMETZ

According to the Torah, Jews may neither eat nor own chametz (leavened foods) during the week of Passover.

Many chametz foods can be disposed of prior to Pesach. Some cannot without significant loss. This problem can be resolved by selling, according to an ancient formula, any chametz foods to a non-Jewish person, who is not obliged to observe the Holiday.

The chametz is sold with the understanding that the seller will not partake of it during the week of Pesach. The chametz technically becomes the property of the non-Jewish person. However, it remains on the seller's property, usually in a designated corner of the house or garage, "rented" to the non-Jewish person. The chametz is re-purchased immediately after Pesach for your continued use.

MA'OT HITTIM

In past generations, each Jewish community maintained a special fund to provide flour for baking matzah for those in need. This fund, known as ma'ot hittim, soon became an all-inclusive fund for distributing food and clothing to those in need at Pesach time.

As we remember what it means to be enslaved, so do we take upon ourselves the obligation to provide for the needs of the those enslaved by hunger, especially at this time of year.

I will accept the responsibility for helping you to sell your chametz and fulfill the mitzvah of ma'ot hittim. Please fill out the attached form and return it to Rabbi Metz before Tuesday, March 31. You can also find this form at caiaz.org or scan the QR Code to submit your form online.

Wishing you all a happy and kosher Pesach.
